

Donald Heck, Charge No. 10-0589

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge ("the Court") held an Evidentiary Hearing on Friday, February 4, 2011, the Court accepted the admission of Donald O. Heck and disbarred him. Respondent admittedly created trust on behalf of clients and borrowed funds from those trusts as well as other clients failing to properly document those loan transactions. The Respondent admits that he did not advise his clients in writing of the desirability of seeking independent legal counsel in such transactions.

Respondent's conduct constituted grounds for disbarment pursuant to Ethical Rules 1.7(a)(2) and 1.8(a).

Findings agreed to and judgment signed.
